

ICS DreamTeam Member No 2185 CV

Profile:

- He was a Microsoft Student Representative on the Student Partner Program for the 2007/8 Academic year. Throughout the program he received extensive training on the latest Microsoft Technologies and delivered a wide range of presentations to students and academic staff. He was also involved with writing articles for the student newsletter and arranged/delivered content at various events. He was also involved with beta testing of several new Microsoft products. He won the MSP Star Award for the year and was able to visit the Microsoft Corp Headquarters in Seattle.
- He is also very involved with various .NET user groups around the country and delivers technical presentations to developers at various events. The topics he has covered in the past include WPF and Silverlight. The most recent session he has delivered is a 1 hour talk on video game development with XNA at DDD South West – the biggest developer conference in this part of the country.

Technical Skills Summary:

Technical Skills

- C#
- C++
- .NET
- WPF
- Silverlight
- Expression Studio
- XNA
- Windows Server 2003/8
- Exchange 2003/8
- Adobe Photoshop
- Adobe Illustrator

Soft Skills

- Presentation / Conference Speaking
- Project Management

Work Experience:

From – To: 2008 - Present

Role Title: Technologist

Description: Member of the expert team of technologists working on Microsoft Corporation projects including

- M1920 – Technical content development for the Azure Services Platform. This is now available on the Azure website and was printed out and given to attendees at PDC 2008. See <http://www.microsoft.com/azure/datasheet.aspx>
- M1913 – He was a Developer for this 3 day Windows Presentation Foundation ILT Course. This course was designed to be highly technical and aimed at internal Microsoft employees wanting to learn this technology.
- M2012 – Developer on this project that involved the development of a Deep Zoom tool for Microsoft Advertising UK. The tool is now used by the team to show the advertising space available across the Windows Live based sites and services. Deep Zoom is a technology which is based on Microsoft Silverlight. See <http://windowslivetoegether.com>

www.ics.net
dreamteam@ics.net
+44 (0)1256 403800

- M2044 – Technical content development for the SQL Services team. The content was designed to make the new features of the next platform version appeal to business and technical decision makers.
- M2109 – Lead Developer on this project that involved the creation of a Deep Zoom / Silverlight application to show all of the Microsoft Student Partners located worldwide. This was created for the Academic Team and is hosted on the Microsoft website. This project also involved supporting students with the recent live services and getting them up to date on this new technology. See <http://www.student-partners.com/photochain.aspx>

Customer: Content Master Ltd

From – To: 2006 - 2007

Role Title: Network Engineer

Description: This was his Industrial Placement involving the Implementation, Management and Maintaining of Windows Server environments for a wide range of clients across the Nottinghamshire area. General duties include the preparation of proposals based on the client needs and negotiating with IT suppliers. This role also involved problem solving remotely or visiting client on site. The company was also responsible for the full IT support for the BioCity office complex in Nottingham which houses over 20 start-up organizations for the pharmaceutical industry.

Customer: netexperts Ltd

Education:

2008 BSc. (Hons) (2:1), Computer Science, Nottingham Trent University

Certification:

2007 Microsoft Certified Professional, Managing and Maintaining a Server 2003 Environment